Hillsborough Residents Donate 20 Tons of Books to Help Fund Community Projects

One year after launching the New Legacy Book Donation Program in Hillsborough, over 20 tons of books have been collected at two Township locations raising nearly $2,000 for the Rotary Club of Hillsborough Foundation.

Donated books are either resold through online shopping sites like Amazon or if deemed unsalable, recycled. New Legacy Books, the non-profit organization that manages the operation, returns a percentage of the proceeds to The Rotary Club of Hillsborough Foundation each month.
